Listening Test Simulation

On the next few pages, we will be doing some simulations of a TOEIC Listening Test. Please listen to your tutor very well and do not hesitate to ask you tutor questions.

The writing that you will see in RED shows you that in the real exam, you will not be able to read this but you will hear it in a recording. The writing that you see in BLUE tells you that this is written text that you will find in your test booklet.

If there are any additional instructions, you tutor will advise you before you begin.

Good Luck!

Tutor

Please encourage your students to ask any questions they may have about the instructions. You can also rephrase into simpler English if it would be easier for them to understand.

- I. Photographs. You will see 3 pictures. Look at them carefully and then listen to the choices that your tutor gives. Choose the sentence that better describes the picture.

- (A) The parents seems to be having an argument.
- (B) The child looks very happy.
- (C) The woman seems to be as tall as the man.
- (D) The man is about to caress the woman.

TOEIC (750 – 850) Practice Test 1

- (C) There are more people in the picture than cars.
- (D) The vehicles are lined up in several rows.

Duration: 16- 19 minutes

II. Question and Response. Your tutor will read a question. After each question your tutor will read the choices for the correct response. Choose the correct answer.

1

- (A) Not right now.
- (B) Yes, I do like tea.
- (C) It costs $2.50.

The Question:

Would you like a cup of coffee?

2

- (A) He shouldn't have been here by three.
- (B) No, he should. Let's call him.
- (C) Yes, he should. Traffic must be bad.

The Question:

Shouldn't Mr. Cobb be here by now?

Tutor

The other options do not directly answer the question. The correct answers are the ones that best answer the question. Encourage your student to ask questions.

On the next page is the short talk section. Please adjust your reading rate to the student.

You will read the text in red and you will also ask the student to ask the questions indicated in blue.

III. Short Talks. Your tutor will read a short talk. You will listen to the talk and read a few questions about it.

- 1). What is the main purpose of the talk?
 - a) To explain office procedures
 - b) To identify a time problem
 - c) To schedule an appointment
 - d) To review a contract

- 2). Where are the time cards kept?

 - b) In the manager's office
 - c) Beside the clock
 - d) In the lunchroom

- 3). What should the listener do when leaving for lunch?
 - a) Inform the manager
 - b) Record the time
 - c) Check the clock
 - d) Order take out

The talk:

OK. When you come in, the first thing to do is find your time card. Time cards are in this rack on the wall, next to the clock. They're filed in alphabetical order. Punch in by inserting your card in the slot on top of the clock. This will stamp onto the card the time that you start work. Then return your card to its place on the rack. When you go to lunch, make sure that you take your time card again and punch out when you leave, and punch in when you get back. Also be sure and punch out at the end of the day.

Mr. Robert S. Torricelli
Executive Director
Foundation for European Writers

Dear Mr. Torricelli:

I am writing to thank you for the interview you granted me yesterday on such short notice. Your views about the effects of globalization on the writing craft has certainly enriched the material that will form the basis for my article in the Corriere della Sera newspaper.

I am particularly grateful to you for providing me with very informative material about the situation of European writers in the face of the emergence of the European Economic Community. This weekend, I will be watching the set of documentary films you lent me on the plight of the Italian and French writers during World War II. I will be returning the videotape to you on Monday as promised.

Once again, thank you for all the assistance you have extended to me!

Sincerely yours,
Anna Sperling
