Shipment Deliveries

Shipment delivery companies are there to help us transport different things over long distances. They have access to land, sea, and air transportation so it is easier for them to get shipments to different places. Delivery companies usually ask you to fill out a form with your personal information and contact details. They will also ask you to declare the object that you are asking them to ship. Once you have made the payment, they will give you a tracking number so that you can follow your package's path. With your tracking number, you will be able to track your package from you own home. You just need to go to the website and put in the tracking number. Delivery services are very efficient these days.

Answer the following questions based on what you read.

1. What is the selection about?
 - a. a delivery service
 - b. the delivery process
 - c. how delivery companies work
 - d. how to receive your delivery on time

2. What does the delivery company give you after payment?
 - a. a receipt
 - b. a contract
 - c. a tracking number
 - d. a customer service number

3. What is the use of the tracking number?

Clothing Store Promotion

Want to stay warm this winter? Then don't miss the huge sale this weekend at Coat Warehouse. We're taking 10 to 50 percent off our already low prices for winter coats, jackets, hats, mittens, and scarves -- everything you need to be warm and cozy when the temperatures drop and the snow starts falling. This weekend, from Friday through Sunday, is your chance to save even more! Products marked with red tags are reduced anywhere from 10 to 50 percent, and products with green tags will get you discount coupons that can be used at a future date. Coat Warehouse has two locations, at Southgate Mall and downtown on the corner of First and Pike. The first 100 customers at each location will get a set of free earmuffs. We're open 9-9 on Friday and Saturday, and 9-6 on Sunday. Don't be left out in the cold this winter. Get down to Coat Warehouse for our huge winter sale!
